

Fast Facts: CMU Instrumental Workshop 2008

DATE: Friday, November 21, 2008 from 8:30 a.m. – 3:00 p.m., CMU Music Building

WHO CAN ATTEND:

- Advanced woodwind, brass, percussion and keyboard (piano & organ)
- Students in grades 10-12.
- Two students per instrument per school (clarinet and bass clarinet count as the same instrument, as do alto and tenor saxophone.)
- (Please note: percussionists will work on rhythmic and keyboard instruments.)

COST: $20/student - please send a single check for all students you wish to register.

PLEASE REMEMBER:

- Instrumentalists should bring their instruments. Keyboard students bring current music being worked on.
- Percussionists should bring sticks and a practice pad on a stand.
- We will be presenting workshops and clinics on topics useful to all instrumentalists.
- High School directors are encouraged to attend and to observe any of these master classes and to collect written materials from the CMU instructors.
- There will be no charge for ensemble directors and parents.

LUNCH: is not provided, but a map of nearby restaurants, including those on campus, will be available at registration.

CONFIRMATION PACKET: Upon receipt of your registration, we will send you:

- parking information
- detailed daily schedule
- enrollment confirmations

Space in this workshop will be limited, so please apply early.

QUESTIONS: Please contact Kennen White, professor of clarinet, at white1kd@cmich.edu or (989) 774-1956.

DEADLINE: The postmark deadline is October 24 and pre-enrollment with paid registration is a necessity. We are sorry that we cannot accept faxed registration; payment must arrive with registration.
